Letter of Appreciation for Autodesk AutoCAD Advanced Training- Hyderabad

The Department of Mechanical Engineering, MRCET is thankful to your organization for having conducted the first batch of training program on "AutoCAD Advanced Course" from 14th September 2015 to 20th September 2015, tailored to meet the requirements of Mechanical Engineering Students. It was a very well organized training program conducted in a proficient manner.

The hands on training were extremely useful to our undergraduate students enrolled in the course. We would like to place on record the patience and professionalism displayed by Mr. Pavan Kumar P, Application Engineer, throughout the training Program.

The feedback from the students for the first batch of training program was very good and we look forward to have such training programs in the near future.

Thank you,

For
